ATTENTION : CANDIDATES PROVISIONALLY SELECTED

UPSC Civil Services Preliminary Examination Coaching Programme -2019-20

The Principal has been receiving calls from some anxious parents and provisionally selected candidates that, they find it difficult to present themselves at the O/O the Principal on 29.11.2019 or 30.11.2019, owing to valid reasons like attending TNPSC interview etc.

Such candidates can attend the selection interview either on 29.11.2019 or on 30.11.2019 irrespective of the day assigned to them.

Candidates selected for Full time Programme who are down with illness and hence could not come on 30.11.2019 may produce medical certificate and join between 10.30 am and 11.30 am on 02.12.2019 (Monday). This is the last and final chance.

Candidates selected for Full time Programme, who do not report on 02.12.2019 forego their seats and no more extension of time will be given. Their seats will go to the wait listed.

And those of the provisionally selected candidates, who are not interested in attending special lectures painstakingly arranged and crafted, may opt out of admission now itself by informing the Principal by email or in person.
